

All social justice movements work to overcome these same objections:

It's normal

It's natural

It's necessary

Today, vegan is the moral choice.

It's not food, it's violence.

Which side of history will you be remembered for supporting?